TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments		v
About the Authors		ix
Editor's Note		xv

Postindependence

Crawford Young	Africa: Democratization, Cultural Pluralism, and the Challenge of Political Order	3

South African Contributions

Bernard Magubane	Race and Democratization in South Africa	33
Pieter le Roux	Competing Paradigms: Socioeconomic Development in South Africa	83
Peter Barron and Marian Jacobs	Public Health in South Africa: AIDS and Child Welfare	124
Farieda Khan	Environmentalism in South Africa: A Sociopolitical Perspective	156

Macalester Faculty Observations

Franklin Adler	South African Jews and Apartheid	185
Kendrick Brown	Coloured and Black Relations in South Africa: The Burden of Racialized Hierarchy	198
Janet Carlson	Moving the Edge: The South Africans who are Chinese	208
Beth Cleary	The Spaces I Traveled: Notes on Theater and the Legacies of Apartheid in South Africa	216
Duchess Harris	Multicultural Feminism Transforming Democracy	224

Roberto Ifill	Transforming an Open University: Examining the University of Cape Town	235
David Itzkowitz	The Double Journey of a Jewish-American Academic	248
Leola Johnson	The Social Bandit after Apartheid	260
David Lanegran	The Post-Apartheid City and the Globalization of Eroding the Landscape of Apartheid	269
David Chioni Moore	Of Transitions, Fast and Slow: Writing South Africa at the Turn of the Millennium	279
Peter Rachleff	"On the Ground" with the South African Labor Movement	291
Truman Schwartz	Night Thoughts about Dawn over the Beloved Country	303
Vasant Sukhatme	Institutions and Economic Development: Some Thoughts on the Transition	315
James von Geldern	The Battlefields of KwaZulu-Natal and the Revision of South African History	324