Today’s Program

• Foundation Center Cooperating Collections
• What you need to know before you look for grants
• How you can identify funding partners
• Sources and resources for your grantseeking efforts
Foundation Center & Cooperating Collections

- Nonprofit organization headquartered in NYC
- Nation’s leading authority on organized philanthropy, grants, and giving
- Maintains the most comprehensive database on U.S. grantmakers and their grants
- “Cooperating Collections” located in every state where you can access this information/materials: http://foundationcenter.org/collections/
What is a grant & who gets them?

“Grant: an award of funds to an organization or individual to undertake charitable activities.”

Council on Foundations
www.cof.org

Organizations whose purposes are charitable, educational, scientific, religious, literary, or cultural.
Eligibility

- 501(c)(3) nonprofit, tax-exempt designation from the IRS
  or
- Library Foundation with 501(c)(3) status
  or
- Fiscal Sponsor (a nonprofit) to receive and administer grants on your library’s behalf
  or
- Grantmaker indicates that Public, School or Academic Libraries are eligible regardless of 501(c)(3) status
Money but not FREE Money!

“Every grant I have ever seen required some expenditure on the part of the recipient.”

James Swan in Fundraising for Libraries

- Time (6-12 months)
- Energy (research, writing, follow-up & expectations)
- Money (funding prep- and post-work)
Step 1: Know Your Project (thoroughly)

- What need(s) will this project respond to and how?
  - Who will be helped?
  - What are the goals of the project?
  - How will you know if/when you meet those goals?
  (This is where you will find your keywords/subjects.)

- What TYPE of funding do you need?
  - Seed money
  - Project development/Project support
  - Equipment
  - General/Operating Support

- How much $$ do you need?
  - Realistic detailed budget
  - Direct and indirect costs
Step 2: Consider potential stakeholders

- Foundations (private, community, corporate-sponsored)
  - Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
  - George Kress Foundation, Inc. (no web site)
  - Verizon Foundation

- Direct Corporate Giving Programs
  - Pizza Hut, Inc.

- Government Agencies (federal, state, and local)
  - Institute of Museum and Library Services
  - State of WI Higher Education Board

- Associations/Societies
  - American Library Association
  - Beta Phi Mu International Library Science Honorary Society
Step 3: Research Common Interests

What they SAY they will & what they do!

- Who has an interest in your area of interest?
- Who funds in your geographic area?
- Who will provide the TYPE of support you need?
- Who has given in the dollar range you need?
Where should I look?
