

Copyright Mashed-Up and Remixed

Watch the film: <http://vimeo.com/user3372362>

On the film:

- What did you find most thought provoking?

On copyright:

- What is the purpose of copyright? What is the purpose of the public domain?
- Are these currently in appropriate balances and serving their purposes well?

On format:

- Are physical and digital formats treated differently? Why or why not?
- Why is it a federal case to sample video clips but acceptable to quote print sources?

On 21st c. literacy:

- Lessig says that this is writing for the new generation; if you agree, how might libraries stay relevant as forms of literacy change?
- Should libraries provide tools to create new media and provide instruction on these tools?
