Macalester Journal of Philosophy

The Macalester Journal of Philosophy is produced on an annual basis. The Journal prints student philosophy papers, replies to previous papers, and book reviews. Papers in any area of philosophy will be considered.

Material for future issues of the Journal should be submitted by Macalester students to any faculty member in the Philosophy Department.

Citation of Journal Articles

The Journal is published to promote the scholarly work of our students. We have not established copyright for the articles, as we hope to encourage their widespread distribution and use. However, this use must include appropriate attribution/citation. Written permission to include any article (whole or in part) in a work that is copyrighted should be sought in advance from the Department of Philosophy, Macalester College.
