NOTE FROM THE EDITORS

We wish to thank the former editors, David Holmberg and Kathryn March, for their outstanding contribution to the growth of the Bulletin. We hope to continue their work and to preside, during our term as editors, over a journal that will be of increasing interest and importance to all of us.

This is the last issue of 1986. We have chosen to keep the same format for this issue, but we are considering a number of changes for the future, the inclusion of full-length research articles, for instance, and would welcome editorial suggestions from all readers.

We thank all of you who have been so generous with your support in the past and, once again, remind the rest of you that the HRB is only as good as its readers: we depend upon you to contribute newsworthy information and to encourage more new member subscribers. Please keep us up to date on Himalayan activities in your area. Please also continue to recommend the HRB to your colleagues, friends, and librarians.
