Shakespeare's As You Like It is a play full of lovers, tyrants, fools and foolishness. It's where two distinct worlds clash: the cold, rigid city and the open, natural country. Some of the players are exiled while others flee the tyrannical Duke and his court, to find relief in the wild forest. There they are free to choose how they will live, who their friends are and how they will love. In the forest lovers of all types and genders meet, confuse, and part. Will they be able to find true love after all the turmoil? The answer is for those who attend the play to find out, among the mystical woods and forest where every love and suffering resides.

Berlovitz is one of four founding artistic directors of the 2005 Tony Award-winning Theatre de la Jeune Lune (TJL). For almost 30 years she acted, directed, taught and served an instrumental role in the artistic leadership of this internationally acclaimed company. Since the closing of TJL, Berlovitz has acted with the Sod House Theater, Ten Thousand Things, Live Action Set, Theatre Novi Most and the Improbable Theatre companies.
