

Three Macalester alumni become Trustees

St. Paul, Minn. – Three Macalester College alumni have become members of the Board of Trustees. They were elected in May and will serve three-year terms.

Edward Donkor, Class of 2004

Edward Donkor is a Principal on the energy investment team with Pine Brook Partners, an investment firm with more than $5 billion of assets under management. He joined Pine Brook in October 2010. He currently represents Pine Brook as a director of Cahill Services, LLC, GR Energy Services Holdings, LLC, La Luna Energy Partners, LP, and Saguaro Resources Ltd. Before joining Pine Brook, Donkor was with First Reserve Corporation, a global private equity and infrastructure investment firm exclusively focused on energy.

Prior to joining First Reserve in 2006, he was an investment banking analyst in the Global Industrial and Services Group at Credit Suisse. Donkor holds a BA in Economics and Computer Science from Macalester College, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.
