

Extending Knowledge: Digging Deeper into Google Extensions

By Olivia Moris, MLIS, Metronet

What is a Google
Extension?

Extensions are small programs that customize your browsing experience when using Chrome. They allow you to make Chrome your own by tailoring it to fit your needs or preferences.

The List:

bit.ly/libtechextensions

—

Productivity

- Boomerang for Gmail
 - Clockify
 - Pocket
 - Rescue Time
 - Stay Focusd
 - Todoist
-

Education

- Britannica Insights
 - Cite This For Me
 - Grammarly for Chrome
 - Library Extension
 - Newsguard
 - Screencastify
-

Security

- Ghostery
 - HTTPS Everywhere
 - Last Pass
 - Panic Button
-

Utilities

- Bitly
 - Extension Manager
 - Google Calendar
 - One Tab
 - Tab Cloud
 - Text Mode
 - Unshorten.link
-

Just for Fun

- Earth View from Google Earth
- Honey
- Momentum
- Wayback Machine

Leftovers

- Amazon Assistant
 - Google Docs Offline
 - Netflix Party
 - Office Editing for Docs, Sheets, Slides
 - Pinterest
 - Remove All Politics from FB
 - Tabby Cat
-

Questions?

Contact Info:

Olivia Moris, MLIS

Metronet

MILI Program Manager

olivia@metronet.lib.mn.us