History of the Nubra Valley.

Leh, Ladakh. Rs. 50/- (In Tibetan)

Nubra Valley, the northernmost region of Ladakh, occupies a special position in the religious and cultural history of the area. The valley is considered to be the most beautiful in the whole of Ladakh and for this reason is called IDumra, the valley of flowers. A number of famous gonpas can be found here and there is a tradition of visiting the area for pilgrimage. Besides the gonpas a number of important historical sites can also be found here, such as the natural rock statues of mGonpo-bKagyat (the eight manifestations of Lord Protector, Natha).

The gateway of Ladakh was thrown open to foreign tourists the 4th of June 1974 at the instigation of the department of tourism. Unlike Sham, Jung, and the Zaskar Valley, however, Nubra valley remains a forbidden land for tourists. In the case that they will ever be permitted to enter the valley, they too will be able to visit the holy sites of Nubra and we are therefore hopeful for its early opening.
