Notices | The European Bulletin of Himalayan Research

The European Bulletin of Himalayan Research (EBHR) was founded by the late Richard Burghart in 1991. A multi-disciplinary journal focusing on the Himalayan region, it is the result of a partnership between scholars in France (CNRS), Germany (South Asia Institute, University of Heidelberg) and the United Kingdom (School of Oriental and African Studies [SOAS]).

Each issue of the EBHR, which is published twice a year, contains peer-reviewed articles, book reviews and workshop and conference reports.

EBHR No. 41 (Autumn/Winter 2012) contained the following articles:

The Kinship Terminology of the Sangtam Nagas. Pascal Bouchery and Lemlila Sangtam

'Vote For Prashant Tamang': Representations of an Indian Idol in the Nepali print media and the retreat of multi-culturalism. Harsha Man Maharjan

'Objectionable Contents': The policing of the Nepali print media during the 1950s. Lokranjan Parajuli

Maoist Gates in Jumla and Mugu Districts: Illustrations of the 'People's War'. Satya Shrestha-Schipper

'This is How We Joke': Towards an appreciation of alternative values in performances of gender irony among the Gaddis of Himachal. Anja Wagner

EBHR No. 42 (Spring/Summer 2013) contained the following articles:

Stability in Transition: Development perspectives and local politics in Nepal. James Sharrock

Struggling on Two Fronts during Nepal's Insurgency: The Citizens' Movement for Democracy and Peace and the meanings of 'civil society'. Celayne Heaton Shrestha & Ramesh Adhikari

Shaping a Livable Present and Future: A review of youth studies in Nepal. Amanda Snellinger

Learning in a Guerrilla Community of Practice: Literacy practices, situated learning and youth in Nepal's Maoist movement (1996-2006). Ina Zharkevich

All articles undergo a process of peer review. The following addresses should be used for offers of articles and reports and general correspondence:
