Non-print formats have evolved over time as well, right?
“[t]he ‘library’ has lost its etymologic meaning and means not a collection of books, but the central agency for disseminating information, innocent recreation, or, best of all, inspiration among the people. Whenever this can be done better, more quickly, or cheaply by a picture than a book, the picture is entitled to a place on the shelves and in the catalog”

Melvil Dewey, 1906
Why is media literacy particularly important now?

Because media is everywhere!
What is Media Literacy?
“The ability to access, analyze, evaluate and communicate messages in a wide variety of forms” (Aspen Institute, 1992)

Keys to Developing a Quality Media Outreach Program

Media projects can provide transformative learning experiences. Always focus on teaching and learning!

- Strive to cultivate relationships with new faculty and grow with past
- Make friends and get out there!
- Recruit knowledgeable, passionate, professional staff focused on student learning
- Recruit and heavily train competent, reliable, student staff
- Consult with colleagues at other institutions
- Keep one eye on today and the other on TOMORROW!
Not all mai tais..

Scaling Service Strategies: Student-Produced Media in SMART Commons

- Student staff media training program
- Student facing media support site
- Partnerships for equipment sharing
- Partnerships student media workshops/Learning Bytes (with UTTC)
Scaling Service Strategies:
Media Outreach Instructor - Support Staff

- Media Services Site
- “Profiles of Teaching and Learning with Media”
- Communications strategy
- Faculty/staff media workshops
One eye on tomorrow...
