Welcome to the Timeline Workshop!

Kent Gerber, Bethel University
Johan Oberg, Macalester College
Participants will learn:

- How Google Spreadsheets store and supply data to the timeline tools
- How to display the data in an open source timeline tool
- To create an exhibit by combining the spreadsheet and timeline software tools
- Gain experience with a type of digital humanities (DH) tool and get a sense of the larger context of DH
Digital Humanities (DH) Genres

Digital Music and Ethnography
Digital Storytelling
Digital Archives
Information/Data Visualization
Scholarly/Academic Publishing

Crowdsourcing
Transcription
GIS / Mapping
Text Encoding & Data Mining
Makerspaces / 3D Printing
Critical Technology Code Studies
DH Genres Involved in Timelines

- Data Visualization
- Digital Archives
- Digital Humanities
- Mapping / GIS
- Digital Storytelling
- Scholarly Publishing
- Data Mining
- Crowd-sourcing
- 3D Printing
- Critical Technology Studies
Timelines

We selected TimelineJS and SIMILE Widgets
More Timelines

http://dirtdirectory.org/

Search directory for “Timelines”
Timeline Use Examples

Library collections and history

Bethel History - Simile and TimelineJS (in CONTENTdm and Omeka)
Macalester Library History

Class assignments

Literary Timeline Group Project

Faculty scholarship projects

Human Computers at NASA (in Omeka)
Sign In to Google Drive or Google Mail

If you don’t yet have an account
Outline for Today

- TimelineJS Intro
- Prepare spreadsheet
- Add your content to spreadsheet
- Connect to timeline
- Break
- Display Timeline on another site (Blogger Blog)
- Step By Step Instructions