something of a recluse, living a spartan life. But he continued his association with "Mountain Travel Nepal," and to run his pheasant and wildfowl farm near the lake in Pokhara where he never failed to give his friends and visitors a warm welcome. And there he died, a man of charm and ability, kindly and generous, honest and outspoken, shy, modest, brave and tough. We mourn his passing but in Virgil's words - meminisse juvabit - we shall delight in remembering.

Field Marshall Sir John and Jim Edward
