Everything you need for a better future and success has already been written. And guess what? All you have to do is go to the library.

-Henri Frederic Amiel

You want weapons? We're in a library. Books. The best weapons in the world! This room's the greatest arsenal we could have. Arm yourself.

-Dick Whittington

It's impossible to overstate how important reading is when dealing with large volumes of information, and without reading, we would be like a library with no books.

-John F. Kennedy

You see, one of the best things about reading is that you'll always have something to think about when you're not reading.

-Jane Austen

She'd always been a little eccentric, a little more passionate about books than your average person, but she was supposed to be... she was a librarian, after all.
